

Conical-shaped Fern Glass With A Ribbed Stem - Early 18th Century

300 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 7 cm

Height : 11,5 cm

Description

A fine and lightweight fern glass vase in colorless blown glass. Its conical bowl, ending in a small flat knot, rests on a ribbed, hollow baluster stem. The round foot is slightly raised and has a rolled rim. Early 18th century. Very good condition, with fine air bubbles and minor imperfections in the glass. Height: 11.5 cm - Bowl diameter: 5.5 cm - Foot diameter: 7 cm Weight: 45 g

Dealer

Antiquités JD

Verrerie ancienne, Curiosités, Objets de vitrine & Art populaire

Mobile : +33 6 11 61 19 79

avenue de la République

Paris 75011