Description

Elegant large-scale Louis XVI mirror (height 175 cm), crafted in finely carved wood with original period gilding, beautifully preserved with a rich and authentic antique patina.
The slender proportions and the richly carved crest with classical and foliate motifs give the piece a strong decorative presence and striking visual impact.
Original mercury glass, showing natural oxidation and age-related veiling, which enhance its charm and attest to its authenticity.
A piece of great elegance and historical value, ideal as a focal element for prestigious interiors.
