Description

We offer this elegant antique chest of drawers from the early 19th century. Its features are typical of the Empire period: imposing and linear, free of excessive ornamentation, yet with two distinctive columns on the front that lend it importance. Finely chiseled gilded bronze details create a unique visual accent. The fine walnut wood, with its warm color, makes it perfect for elegant, classic furnishings. However, if you have modern furnishings, you might consider adding this refined antique chest of drawers to create a unique and elegant contrast. Functionally, the chest of drawers offers ample storage space, with four drawers available for storage. The chest of drawers is in excellent condition, with minimal signs of wear consistent with its age. You can consider adding it to your home
