Description

This model from the Idell series, a contraction of Christian Dell's name and the word "Idea," embodies a rigorous functional vocabulary stemming from Bauhaus research and adapted to standardized industrial production in the 1950s and 60s. This lamp thus fully embodies modernist design associated with the Bauhaus legacy. The reflector is articulated and can be lowered vertically, allowing for use similar to a floor lamp, depending on the chosen configuration. The original color is well preserved. Height 40 cm x Shade diameter 38 cm. Base diameter 19 cm. Minor signs of normal wear. View this lamp, model 6787, Christian Dell, Kaiser Leuchten edition, in full screen on Vintage Addict.
