Description

Oak Desk - 1950s/1960s Work. A beautiful, high-quality desk made of light oak, typical of French production from the 1950s and 60s, with a simple and functional design. It features a large rectangular top resting on two independent units: one unit with a door and an interior shelf, and a second unit with three drawers, each fitted with its original metal handles. The desk can be easily disassembled into three parts. The entire piece rests on tapered legs, characteristic of post-war modernist furniture, lending lightness and elegance to the design. This piece offers excellent storage capacity and great comfort in use. It is in very good overall condition, with a uniform patina and slight signs of wear consistent with its age. Dimensions: Height: 76 cm Width: 135 cm

Depth: 70 cm Delivery: EUR50-EUR100
