780 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Brass

Length : 61

Height : 91

Depth : 1

Description

A beveled mirror composed of thirteen surfaces separated by solid brass strips, soldered with tin on the back. The back of the mirror is reinforced by a red copper bar, also soldered with tin. Four solid brass angle brackets are securely attached, allowing for both horizontal and vertical installation. Dimensions: H 91 cm × W 61 cm × D 1 cm. Very good overall condition: the mirror surface is free of scratches. There are a few minor gaps between some of the strips, which do not affect stability; the whole piece is firm and secure.
