

Flemish School, The Smoker

2 040 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Restauré

Width : 26

Height : 30

Description

The painting is based on Teniers's 17th-century composition, now in the Curtius Museum in France. This Flemish painting references one of the tavern scenes made famous by David Teniers the Younger, but here the focus is entirely on the figure of the smoker, one of the master's most iconic subjects. The protagonist is depicted seated in a rustic interior, immersed in a moment of everyday quiet: he smokes his pipe while eating or drinking, surrounded by a few essential objects such as a jug, a bowl, or a barrel used as a table. Condition: In good overall condition, as shown in the images. Provenance: From a private Italian collection. The first evidence of provenance of the paintings in question comes from a museum in Lima, Peru. Documentation: Purchase invoice (1998), Milanese auction
