Description

Oil on wood panel, signed and dated 1859 by Nicolas Berthon, depicting a rural genre scene: a peasant holding a horse on a country lane, with a rustic building and farm figures in the background. The warm palette, free brushstrokes, and visible impasto are characteristic of mid-19th-century French naturalist painting. The painting bears an old handwritten paper label on the reverse, mentioning "Berthon... environs de Montfermeil," providing an interesting clue to its provenance and location. Dimensions: 36.3 × 20.6 cm Support: wood panel Condition: good overall condition
