

Blown Glass Vase With A Droplet Decoration, 20th Century

420 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Diameter : 15cm

Height : 16cm

Description

An elegant blown glass vase, with a bulbous shape and flared neck, adorned with a relief decoration of large applied drops and bubble inclusions within the glass. The glass has a smoky gray-brown hue with shimmering reflections, highlighting the material and the craftsmanship of the blowing. The base is ground and polished, attesting to meticulous workmanship. The piece evokes 20th-century artistic glassmaking, in the style of European workshops working with thick, textured glass. Unsigned. Height: 16 cm.

Material: Blown glass. Period: 20th century.

Condition: Very good overall condition, with no chips or cracks observed. A distinctive decorative vase, ideal for a contemporary or vintage display, appreciated for the richness of its material and its sculptural decoration.
