White Painted Iron Wine Rack, Italian Manufacture, 1970s

500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 46

Height : 50

Description

Wine rack of Italian manufacture, made of white-painted iron and dating to approximately the 1970s. The piece features a circular structure designed to combine functionality with balanced proportions, representative of Italian domestic and decorative production of the period.

The wine rack is designed to hold fourteen bottles: twelve arranged along the outer perimeter and two positioned at the center, within an inner circular support. The base is made of perforated metal sheet, a technical solution that contributes to both visual lightness and structural stability. The piece stands on four feet and is equipped with an integrated top handle, allowing for easy handling.
