

Swedish Polychrome Oak Kitchen Table - 18th Century

1 200 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oak

Length : 122,5

Height : 76

Depth : 70

Description

18th-Century Swedish Painted Kitchen Table
Sweden, 18th century
This authentic Swedish kitchen table dates from the 18th century and is crafted from solid oak. It retains its original polychromy, in subtle green-grey and patinated brown tones, revealed and softened by the passage of time. Designed for everyday use, this vernacular piece is emblematic of Scandinavian rural furniture, with its simple, robust construction and honest functionality. The thick oak top bears visible traces of life and use, lending warmth and character to the piece. It contrasts beautifully with the painted base, creating a strong yet balanced visual presence. A central drawer enhances both the practicality and authenticity of the table. The partially worn polychromy offers a genuine and vibrant patina,

Dealer

Bleu Atelier

Antiques - Decorative Arts - Jewellery

Mobile : 0672138806

64 rue Grande

Orbec 14290

highly sought after by collectors and lovers of antique furniture with soul. With its restrained proportions and strong personality, this table will find its place naturally in a country kitchen, a rustic-chic dining room, or a contemporary interior seeking a distinctive Scandinavian antique.

Details
Description: Kitchen table
Origin: Sweden
Period: 18th century
Material: Solid oak
Finish: Original polychrome paint
Drawer: One central drawer
Condition: Good overall condition, with patina from use and wear to the legs consistent with age
Dimensions:
Height: 76 cm
Length: 122.5 cm
Depth: 70 cm