

Sèvres Porcelain Sugar Bowl With Bird Decoration - Eighteenth Century

1 750 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Height : 11cm

Description

A covered "bouret" sugar bowl in soft-paste Sèvres porcelain, decorated in polychrome on each side with birds perched on branches. The lid features birds in flight and a finial in the shape of a chamomile flower. Gilt wolf's teeth adorn the rim. Marked in blue with the letter H for the year 1761 and the painter's mark of Jean-Louis Morin, who worked at the Sèvres porcelain factory from 1754 to 1787. Eighteenth century Height: 11 cm Very good condition. Further information and photos available upon request. BILS-CERAMIQUES.COM

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002