A coffee table with a roller top, made of ironwood, purchased in China by the previous owners around 1970. It has a flared shape with a stretcher, and the legs end in rollers. It has a beautiful antique patina and an interesting surface without being too bulky. It is robust and therefore very sturdy. There is a small chip on the base, visible in the photos. It adds a touch of Asian style that is easy to incorporate into any decor. Dimensions: 99 cm long x 48 cm wide x 43 cm high. We deliver and ship worldwide; please contact us for a precise quote.
