Description

Magnificent vermeil watch with double calendar and visible rooster, dating from the First Empire period. The chased silver dial features three small enamel subdials for the hours, minutes, day of the week, and day of the month. A gilt brass rooster is visible on the dial at 12 o'clock. The beautiful gilt brass movement, encircled with chased silver, has a verge escapement with chain and fusee. The movement case back is engraved and includes a timekeeping mechanism. The case is plain vermeil. The watch is in very good mechanical and aesthetic condition. I am available for any further information or additional photos.
