Description

A charming Louis XIV period walnut writing table, 17th century. This exquisite writing table, crafted from solid, molded, and carved walnut, dates from the Louis XIV period and rests on turned legs. Rectangular in shape, it features a drawer in the apron and a wooden top. The tabletop rests on four finely carved, turned baluster legs, joined by an X-shaped stretcher and surmounted by a finial. It boasts a beautiful patina and excellent stability. This high-quality piece of furniture features clean and elegant lines. Combining practical utility, this table can be used as a writing table or a side table with its small storage space, while also offering a very attractive visual appeal with its delicate and harmonious curves. It will easily complement your interior décor. This beautifully proportioned
