Description

An elegant European saint figure dating from the Renaissance, 16th century. The figure is depicted standing, draped in a long, finely worked robe. The right hand rests on the chest in a gesture of devotion, while the left hand holds a book, a symbol of faith and knowledge. The soft, expressive features of the face lend the whole a profound spiritual presence. This antique work displays a beautiful patina and signs of age consistent with its age. A decorative and collectible piece, ideal for a lover of religious art or a cabinet of curiosities.
