Description

Important 19th century French mirror, crafted in finely carved wood and gilded with gold and gold leaf. The large-scale frame features a rich decorative repertoire of floral and foliate motifs, characteristic of French production of the period, with elegant corner details and mouldings of high craftsmanship. The mirror plate is original and contemporary with the frame, preserved with its natural signs of age, including slight waviness and patina, which attest to its authenticity and period manufacture. A striking and elegant decorative piece, ideal for grand salons, entrance halls or representative interiors, perfectly suited to both classic and high-end eclectic settings. An authentic antique mirror, retaining its original patina and gilding.
