Description

Art Deco period side table, circa 1930. Its perfect geometry lends it a modern feel. It rests on four openwork, curved legs in solid mahogany. The apron, also in solid mahogany, houses two concealed drawers. The top features a rich Macassar ebony motif, reflecting the cabinetmaker's careful selection of wood. The recessed base is hexagonal, revealing a contrasting flame grain. The chamfered edges of the solid mahogany frame add a touch of solidity to the piece. Easy to place in both antique and modern interiors. Delivery is available but not included in the price.
