Description

Oil on panel signed Angelo Abrate, depicting a snowy alpine landscape, with an alpine chalet in the foreground and a prominent glacier-covered peak in the background. The composition, dominated by white and bluish tones, sensitively conveys the atmosphere of the high mountains. The depicted peak, with its broad and rounded shape, is located in the Mont Blanc massif, in Haute-Savoie. The brushwork is free and lively, with a beautiful painterly texture, typical of 20th-century alpine landscape painting.
