Description

This Antique Paintings category features a floral still life, a bouquet of dahlia flowers arranged in a vase, presented here as a small oil painting on canvas from the early 20th century, reflecting Art Déco and Art Nouveau influences.

The artwork depicts a flower bouquet in warm, enveloping tones, with dahlias carefully arranged in a translucent green glass vase, resting on a neutral surface.

The composition stands out for its textured, vibrant brushwork, characteristic of European painting between Impressionism and Post-Impressionism, with a rich chromatic palette.

The floral still life painting is housed in a beautiful small carved wooden frame, original
