Description French elegance takes shape in this tripod side table in carved wood, white and gilded lacquer, with its timeless charm. The woodwork, finely carved and enhanced with warm-reflecting gold leaf, highlights the softness of the lines and the refinement of the details. The circular top in Aleppo breccia marble, with deep shades of red, ochre and beige, captures the light and brings a touch of nobility to the whole. The curved base, connected by struts decorated with garlands and ribbons, rests on a base highlighted with the same marble, creating an elegant and harmonious balance. Inspired by the Louis XVI style, this
