Description

Rare painted plaster bas-relief by Roland Brice (1911-1989), abstract decoration in shades of green and blue on a brown background, original work signed R. Brice lower right and dated 72. Dimensions 67 x 82 cm. Good condition with some minor losses. Roland Brice (1911-1989), sculptor and ceramicist, a former student of Fernand Léger, became his official ceramist in 1949. In his Biot studio, he worked on his own creations, which bear the imprint of the painter - primary colors, black lines, figures with rounded curves... Brice also focused on free forms and combined utility and beauty in his vases, dishes, and plates. He was a fervent advocate of art in the city and of polychromy, a vital dimension for humankind.
