Description

Louis XV Low Buffet in Solid Cherry Wood - 18th Century. Charming provincial buffet in solid cherry wood, opening with two molded and shaped doors. The beautifully carved lower rail features a floral urn and garlands, resting on cabriole legs. Antique hardware and keyhole escutcheons. Traditional pegged joinery, with wide panels on the back, attesting to its period origins. The cherry wood has a lovely warm patina. In good overall condition, this is an authentic piece, both decorative and functional. Period: 18th century. Wood: Solid cherry wood
