

Double Strand Cultured Pearl Necklace, Art Deco Clasp In 925 Silver, Circa 1930

1 850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Material : Pearl

Diameter : 2

Height : 36 / 33

Description

Double strand cultured pearl necklace, Art Deco clasp in 925 silver, circa 1930. This antique necklace features two strands of freshwater cultured pearls, approximately 1 cm in diameter, with a slightly baroque shape and a beautiful natural luster. The necklace is centered by a substantial Art Deco clasp in solid 925 silver, with architectural and perfectly symmetrical lines, typical of the 1930s. The decoration, entirely pavé-set with marcasite, highlights a structured geometric design, characteristic of the Art Deco aesthetic, where the rigor of lines and the balance of proportions take precedence over excessive ornamentation. The clasp bears the "925 fish" hallmark, guaranteeing the silver's purity, as well as a maker's mark, LMDB, attesting to its meticulous craftsmanship. Through

Dealer

ADMC Vintage Jewels Signature

Bijoux anciens

Mobile : 0608754117

La Villa 19, galerie charles III

Monaco 98000

its size and decoration, this clasp is a central element of the piece and clearly affirms its Art Deco origins. The necklace has a striking presence when worn, with the harmonious fall of the two strands adding elegance and character to the overall look. Period: circa 1930 Materials: freshwater cultured pearls, 925 sterling silver, marcasite Hallmarks: 925 fish, maker's mark LMDB Gross weight: 186 g Dimensions when worn: - longest strand: 36 cm - second strand: 33 cm Clasp: - width: 4.5 cm - height: 2 cm Pearl diameter: approximately 1 cm Condition: good antique condition, with slight signs of wear consistent with age. Note: Gentlemen, a word to those who love their sweethearts or wives: by offering this magnificent Art Deco pearl necklace, you will undoubtedly make them very happy. I highly recommend it. It is exceptionally elegant, fully inspired by the Art Deco style. And you, ladies, don't wait for gentlemen to treat yourselves: I highly recommend it. Believe me, I live in a land of luxury and I know how to recognize a beautiful woman, even through a pearl necklace. Beauty is a succession of small details that, put together, make all the difference. Firm price: EUR1,850. Free shipping throughout France and Europe by Galerie De Cicco.