Description

Magnificent farmhouse table, also known as a monastery table, made entirely of solid oak. A high-quality antique from the 19th century. Stable, robust, and very heavy, it can be disassembled for transport. Completely stripped by a professional using air abrasive blasting, it is in very good original condition with only minor signs of wear consistent with age (see photos). It comes from a vineyard in the Côte d'Or (Beaune). Other models are available in my other listings; we specialize in antique tables.
