Description

Magnificent Louis XV style chest of drawers, a very high-quality antique piece dating from the 1950s. It features two drawers on the front and original bronze handles. The drawers are fully pegged. It has been professionally stripped using the trendy air-abrasive blasting technique. This beautiful, high-quality chest of drawers is stamped on the back by the craftsman. It is in very good original condition with some signs of wear consistent with age (see photos).
