Description

Antique Marquetry Buffet - Louis XV/Transition Style - 20th Century. Magnificent, high-quality antique buffet, richly marquetry and finely adorned with chased bronze mounts. This piece is distinguished by its remarkable decorative work, notably its marquetry panels depicting floral compositions in vases, as well as its central geometric trompe-l'oeil decoration. The front is punctuated by several doors opening onto ample storage spaces. The interior is clean, functional, and upholstered, offering generous storage capacity. The structure is solid, with a beautiful original patina. The top is also inlaid, with superb floral decorations framing a central geometric motif, demonstrating high-level craftsmanship. The finely chiseled bronze mounts (corners, keyhole escutcheons, friezes, and sabots)
