Description

Magnificent round bistro-style restaurant table with turned legs in the Louis Philippe style, a quality piece dating from the 19th century. Made of solid oak, entirely pegged, and completely stripped by a professional sandblaster. In good original condition with signs of wear consistent with age (see photos), a few marks and scratches, but nothing significant. Stable and robust, truly of very good quality. Other models are available in my other listings; we specialize in antique tables. Diameter 1.29m, Height 73.5cm, Height under the apron 70.5cm
