Description

COD 11471 Indian coffee table from the first half of the 20th century. Richly carved and chiseled in exotic wood, this attractive piece of furniture is a delight to behold. The table's hollowed-out top offers generous storage space. It rests on four solid, finely chiseled wooden legs.Structurally sound and solid, this table can easily be placed in various locations around the home, making it a popular choice for antique dealers and interior decorators. It can also be used as a flower stand, making it ideal for indoor use. It shows some signs of restoration, but is overall in good condition and has a beautiful patina.As each of our products it will be accompanied by a certificate of authenticity and guarantee with photographic documentation.
