Description

A richly carved, solid wood antique secretary desk in the Louis XV style, dating from the 20th century. It comprises: a drop-front opening to reveal a compartmentalized interior with small drawers and storage niches, two large lower drawers, a front decorated with carved motifs (shells, scrolls, cartouches), original bronze handles and keyhole escutcheons, and elegant cabriole legs. The top is adorned with a refined central carved decoration. The interior is functional and offers ample space for writing or storing documents and valuables. Condition: Good overall condition considering its age. Signs of wear, an antique patina, and minor marks of age are visible (see photos), which contribute to its charm and authenticity. The structure is sound and stable. Dimensions: H95 x W81 x D43 cm.
