Description

Booksellers, Quai de Seine - Oil on canvas signed Résiliot. This charming oil on canvas depicts a lively scene of booksellers along the banks of the Seine, an emblematic and timeless theme of literary Paris. The composition features several elegantly dressed figures, strollers and book lovers, lingering in front of the famous green boxes of the booksellers. The atmosphere is peaceful and warm, bathed in soft light filtering through the trees, evoking a Parisian stroll from the first half of the 20th century. The artist, Résiliot, offers here a sensitive and well-constructed figurative painting, favoring atmosphere and narrative over excessive detail. The palette, subtly nuanced with ochres, greens, and warm tones, lends the whole an authentic charm and a beautiful depth. The painting is
