Description

An extremely rare Louis XV period solid silver Tours platter, circular in design and bordered with fine lines. The rim is engraved with a coat of arms surmounted by a helmet. It bears the charge mark for Tours 1738-44 (a crowned lowercase e), the control mark, the guild mark for Tours 1742 (a crowned T), and the mark of the master silversmith Jean-Baptiste BAUBE (1722-1775), known as J. BAUBE-PERRIN (a hallmark with the initials "IB," a tower and a crown above, two grains and a crescent below). This extremely rare Louis XV period armorial Tours platter is in very good condition, with a beautiful patina and minor scratches from use. For the discerning collector. Diameter: 29.5 cm. Weight: 767 grams.
