Description

Antique pedestal table in a classic style, resting on a finely sculpted cast iron tripod base decorated with lion heads and paws. The richly ornamented, twisted central shaft offers great stability and a strong decorative character. The circular top is made of light veined marble, edged with a metal band. It displays a natural patina and some visible signs of age (an old crack and traces of use), without detracting from its solidity or authentic charm. Ideal as a side table, end table, entryway table, or decorative stand. Perfectly suited to a classic, bohemian, country house, or vintage bistro interior. Specifications: Period: late 19th century Materials: painted cast iron and marble Sculpted tripod base (lion heads and paws motifs) Round marble top Good overall condition with a patina of age Decorative and functional
