Description

18th-century walnut chest. A substantial storage chest made of solid wood, beautifully crafted in antique style, featuring a front with molded rectangular panels that lend structure and elegance to the piece. The simple yet robust joinery evokes antique utilitarian furniture, intended for domestic or rural use. The lower section rests on a solid base with a shaped cutout, adding a discreet decorative touch while ensuring stability and visual appeal. The warm, nuanced patina bears witness to time and use, reinforcing the piece's authenticity. The thick, slightly overhanging top emphasizes the chest's solid and functional character. Period: 18th century.
Material: Solid wood. Decoration: Molded panels on the front. Base: Shaped plinth. Function: Chest/storage chest. Condition: Used, with signs
