Description

Pair of velvet toadstool armchairs, first half of the 20th century. An elegant pair of toadstool armchairs with generous, enveloping shapes, typical of comfortable furniture from the first half of the 20th century. They are fully upholstered in thick velvet in a golden-brown hue, offering a deep and plush seat. The rounded armrests, low back, and compact silhouette emphasize the warm and intimate character of these armchairs. The base is highlighted by a wide gold fabric fringe, adding a refined decorative touch and accentuating their classic elegance. The set presents a beautiful homogeneity, ideal for placing them opposite each other or as a pair in a living room or boudoir. Period: first half of the 20th century. Type: toadstool armchairs. Upholstery: velvet. Finish: fringes on the lower
