Description

Mahogany Duet Music Stand - 19th Century.

This elegant duet music stand, crafted from solid mahogany, boasts a beautiful, warm, and even patina, typical of the high-quality woods used in the 19th century. The large, rectangular stand is designed to hold two scores simultaneously. It features openwork horizontal crossbars, allowing for comfortable reading while visually lightening the structure. The stand is adjustable in height and tilt thanks to a discreet and functional central mechanism, demonstrating meticulous craftsmanship. On each side, the stand is fitted with brass candle holders, mounted on articulated arms, for illuminating the scores during performances. These original elements add a refined touch and recall the piece's musical and historical use. The turned central column rests on
