"Yolanda Leite's artistic aim is clearly to translate the ineffable and reveal the ephemeral. A woman of few words, she prefers to write, and with light as her pen, it is through photographs that she expresses her sense of beauty. The fullness of her silent message charms and compels our attention because she notices what escapes us. For us, she captures it, draws it, or unveils it with only light as her partner! She knows how to step back, study nuances, give substance to the traces of existence from the past, present, and future, and convey to
