Description

Terracotta Bust: Little Girl Wearing a Fox Skin, Inspired by 19th Century Tales. Charming 19th-century terracotta bust depicting a little girl wearing a fox skin, inspired by the tales and legends of the period. Signed Bernard on the back in relief. It rests on a blackened wooden pedestal. Good overall condition and beautiful antique patina. One finger is missing from the right hand, but it is barely noticeable. Beautiful restoration work on a charming subject. A delightful bust; this mischievous little girl seems full of life and very joyful. Dimensions: 38 cm high.
