Condition : Bon état

Description

Unknown Flemish artist, early 17th century
The Virgin and Child
Boxwood, with metal crowns, total height 30.5 cm
Provenance: private collection, The Netherlands
*A beautiful and intimate boxwood sculpture of the Virgin and Child, probably executed in Malines or elsewhere in Flandres around 1600-1650 and intended for private devotion. Exceptional that the metal crowns are still preserved. Very good condition, a few usual splits in the wood and with some minor damages, but very good condition for the age.
