Description

Three-seater black leather sofa designed by Tobia Scarpa and produced by B&B Italia, an Italian design from the 1970s. An iconic model thanks to its balanced proportions, subtly tufted backrests, and enveloping armrests. The thick, supple black leather has developed a beautiful patina, giving the piece an authentic and warm character. The quality of its construction and timeless design make it a high-end piece of furniture, as comfortable as it is durable. A sofa with character and a strong presence, perfect as a centerpiece in a living room or in a sophisticated contemporary setting.
