Description

Pair of Carved Wooden Corner Armchairs, Late 19th Century. Elegant pair of antique corner armchairs, richly carved, dating from the late 19th century, inspired by the Renaissance/Neo-Renaissance style. High-quality carving: turned uprights, foliate decoration, and finely worked openwork motifs on the backs and seat rails. Solid wood frame resting on four turned legs. Seats upholstered with green leather cushions, offering a refined contrast with the warm patina of the wood. Highly decorative, these corner armchairs are ideal for a living room, library, or study, and can be placed in a corner or used as occasional seating. Dimensions: Height: 72 cm Width: 52 cm Depth: 52 cm Seat height: 43 cm Condition: Very good overall condition, with slight signs of age, consistent with their age.
