Description

Agostino Cattani (active in Emilia-Romagna, 19th century) Round walnut table 65 cm 1834 Provenance: Rome, private collection. Notes: Signed inside a drawer: "Agostino Cattani 1834". Elegant walnut occasional table with a circular top defined by a frieze decorated with a Greek key motif running around the entire perimeter and concealing several drawers. The central support, characterized by twisted fluting, rests on a trilobed base enriched with refined scrolls, lending both visual lightness and stability to the overall structure.
