Description

Giltwood and Marble Console Table, 19th Century. A wall console table "in the Louis XV style" in carved and gilded wood, adorned with a central mascaron and rich foliate ornamentation. Two cabriole legs joined by a carved stretcher, typical of the Rococo style. Red marble top with undulating edges. A 19th-century piece based on an 18th-century model. A refined decorative element, ideal in an entryway, living room, or hallway to hold a lamp, trinket tray, or collectible. Discover all our other products on our website: www.llantiquites.com
