Description

Set of 6 Oak Chairs in the Style of Pierre Cruège, 1940s. Elegant set of 6 oak chairs, French craftsmanship in the Art Deco style, circa 1930. The straight backs are adorned with carved panels featuring a stylized floral motif, a typical echo of the decorative vocabulary of the period. The woven straw seats (very comfortable and sturdy) complement the tapered legs and solid crossbars: chairs ready for everyday use. The set clearly evokes the style of Pierre Cruège--a French decorator active from the 1940s to the 1960s, renowned for his oak furniture with carved reliefs, both understated and inviting. Beautiful wood patina, balanced proportions, and sound construction: a decorative, cohesive set that is easy to integrate around a wooden or stone table.
