Description

Handmade Iranian rug, Shiraz, 20th century. This magnificent rug is handmade from wool on wool and is in very good condition. A handmade Shiraz rug carries the soul of southern Iran in every knot. Woven by skilled artisans using time-honored techniques, these rugs are renowned for their warm colors, bold geometric patterns, and authentic tribal character. The natural wool, deep reds and earthy tones, along with subtle variations in pattern, give each piece a unique personality: no two are ever alike. A Shiraz rug is more than just a decorative object; it is a living testament to heritage, craftsmanship, and artistry passed down through generations, inviting itself into your home.
