1 650 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Wood marquetry

Description

A Louis XVI style bedroom set, stamped Georges Guerin in Paris, comprising a wardrobe, a bed, and a bedside table. Richly decorated with marquetry and gilt bronze mounts. Early 20th century. The wardrobe has three doors: a central door with a beveled glass mirror and two curved wooden doors on either side. Each door reveals shelves on five levels. The central section can be converted into a hanging space. The bed accommodates a 190/140 cm mattress. The bedside table is topped with a marble slab. The interior is white marble. Stamps are on the back of the wardrobe and on the bed frame. A metal plaque reading "Georges Guérin, Furniture and Upholstery Manufacturer, 10-14 Faubourg Saint Antoine, Paris" is affixed to the shelf with two drawers. More photos available upon request.
