Description

Directoire period flat desk in walnut, 19th century. French work in the classical style. An elegant flat desk in solid wood, typical of 19th-century French furniture with its clean, balanced, and functional lines. It features a rectangular top resting on four tapered legs, providing visual lightness and stability. The front opens with five drawers: a central drawer in the frieze, fitted with a keyhole escutcheon, and four symmetrically arranged side drawers. The drawers are equipped with brass handles and keyhole escutcheons, with simple and elegant decoration, consistent with the period. The recesses under the frieze soften the silhouette and attest to careful cabinetmaking. The warm and nuanced patina of the wood reveals a beautiful quality of material, with traces of age that
