Description

Bronze sculpture of a harvester. Beautiful patina and meticulous chasing. The figure is depicted in motion, leaning slightly forward, capturing the natural momentum of harvest work. He holds a bucket in his right hand, while his posture and the drapery of his clothing emphasize the realism and dynamism of the scene. Square Siena marble base. After Barthélemy Prieur (1536-1611), France, late 18th century. A vibrant work, a testament to the classical skill of French sculpture.
