

18th-century Meissen Porcelain Yellow Ground Purpurmalerei Tea Bowl And Saucer

1 351 EUR

Signature : Meissen

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

A Meissen porcelain yellow ground tea bowl and saucer with "purpurmalerei" decoration in panels of four harbour scenes/landscapes, circa 1740. Maker's marks: (cup and saucer) crossed swords marks in underglaze blue. Worker's marks in black. Faintly impressed (Drehers?) marks on the inside of the footrims (clearer on the tea bowl). Measurements: Cup: Height: 4.5 cm (1.78 in). Diameter: 7.8 cm (3.1 in). Saucer: Height 2.7 cm (1.1 in). Diameter: 13.2 cm (5.2 in). Condition: Excellent. Near mint. No damage, minimal wear. One dark firing spot to the inside side of the saucer (see images). No restoration found under ultraviolet light. Shipping/Import: Free to most destinations. EU customers, PLEASE NOTE: Our price for this item includes all shipping and import costs (customs duty, clearance fees, and

Dealer

Lefays

Fine, affordable, art and antiques with excellent customer service

Mobile : +44 7772174440

Hare Lane,

Chard TA20

VAT). For other destinations, please inquire.