Description

An elegant Louis XVI style roll-top desk in walnut, dating from the late 19th century. The roll-top reveals an interior fitted with small drawers and a writing surface lined with green vegan leather. The frieze features three drawers, the central one adorned with a carved keyhole escutcheon. It has brass drop handles. The corners are decorated with carved dice, and the desk rests on tapered legs with twisted fluting, in the Neoclassical style. The top is embellished with carved ribbons and foliage.
